

Which Journey Are You On?

We have a choice in life to focus on the physical journey (what will satisfy our ego and body?) or the spiritual journey (what will further our journey home to God?) We tend to think if we handle the physical journey the spiritual journey will take care of itself, but it's actually the other way around.

Physical Journey

Spiritual Journey